

Campus Student Handbook - Residence Life and Student Services

RESIDENCE HALL POLICIES

Quiet hours in all residence halls are 22:00-08:00 Sunday through Thursday and 24:00-09:00 Friday and Saturday. During final examination periods, 24-hour quiet hours are in effect.

Overnight guests are permitted for a maximum of three consecutive nights and must be registered with the residence hall front desk.

Cooking appliances with exposed heating elements are prohibited in student rooms. Microwaves under 1000 watts and mini-fridges under 4.5 cubic feet are permitted.

STUDENT SERVICES AND HOURS

The Library is open 07:30-24:00 Monday through Thursday, 07:30-20:00 Friday, 10:00-20:00 Saturday, and 12:00-24:00 Sunday.

The Writing Center offers 45-minute appointments and is located on the second floor of the Library. Walk-ins are available 13:00-16:00 on weekdays.

Counseling and Psychological Services: Wellness Building, first floor. Same-day crisis appointments are available 09:00-16:00 on weekdays; a 24/7 crisis line is staffed at all other times.

The Dining Hall serves breakfast 07:00-10:00, lunch 11:00-14:30, and dinner 17:00-20:30 during the academic term.

STUDENT CONDUCT AND GRIEVANCES

Students may appeal a final course grade by submitting a written appeal to the department chair within 30 calendar days of the grade posting. The appeal must state the grounds and include supporting materials.

The department chair issues a written decision within 15 business days. Decisions may be appealed once more to the Dean of the college.

Reports of harassment or discrimination should be directed to the Office of Equity and Title IX, Administration Building room 120.

TECHNOLOGY AND ACCESSIBILITY

Every enrolled student receives 100 free print pages per semester; additional pages are billed at $0.08 per page for black and white.

Students requiring accommodations must register with the Office of Accessibility Services at least two weeks before the accommodation is needed. Exam accommodations require notice 10 business days before the exam date.
